D.O. No. A2J/Probono /08/17

Dated : 08-05-2017

Dear Shri Menon,

On 20th April, 2017, the Hon'ble Minister for Law & Justice, Shri Ravi Shankar Prasad launched a web based initiative 'Pro bono legal services' through which interested lawyers can register themselves to volunteer pro bono services for the underprivileged litigants, who are unable to afford it. The Department of Justice has launched the online application for this initiative on its website <http://www.doj.gov.in>. Through this portal, litigants from marginalised communities (as defined under section 12 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 including members of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, women, children, senior citizens, persons with low income and persons with disabilities) can also apply for legal aid and advice from the pro bono lawyers.

The department would facilitate connection between the registered pro bono lawyers and interested litigants, based on location of practice and subject of expertise like civil, criminal etc.

Since its launch, the initiative has seen encouraging response from lawyers across the country. In an endeavour to enhance the reach of the website, and consequently the registration of lawyers interested in volunteering pro bono legal services, I shall be grateful if you can circulate the details of this initiative among lawyers practicing before the Kerala High Court. For this purpose, you may utilize the proforma enclosed with this letter.

I am confident that your assistance in this regard will go a long way strengthening the culture of pro bono legal services in our country.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S.C. Bamma)

NOTICE

'Pro Bono Legal Services' Initiative Department of Justice, Ministry of Law & Justice 8 May 2017

The Department of Justice has launched a web based platform for 'Pro Bono Legal Services', available at its website <http://doj.gov.in/>

This initiative, launched on 20 April 2017, by the Hon'ble Minister for Law & Justice, Shri. Ravi Shankar Prasad, is aimed at institutionalizing pro bono legal services in India. Through this online portal, practicing advocates can volunteer themselves for pro bono legal services for the underprivileged litigants who are unable to afford it (as defined under Section 12 of the Legal Services Act, 1987). Registrations can be done at <http://doj.gov.in/>

The database of registered lawyers will be utilized by the Department of Justice to create a liaison between those entitled to legal services under The Legal Services Authority Act, 1987 and a qualified lawyer providing pro bono services having expertise or interest in the related matter.

The government has also proposed to include and recognize pro bono legal assistance provided by lawyers as a yardstick to be considered for appointment to appropriate positions.

Please note, Pro bono services are by definition voluntary and no honorarium or financial assistance shall be provided to the lawyers.

D.O. No. A2J/Probono /08/17

Dated : 30-05-2017

Dear Shri Menon,

Kindly refer to my letter dated 08.05.2017 wherein it was requested to give wide publicity among practicing lawyers in your High Court and subordinate courts to participate in Department of Justice's pro-bono legal service scheme.

Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi while inaugurating digital filing system of the Supreme Court at Vigyan Bhawan on 10-05-2017 appealed to the legal fraternity to come forward and take up more cases of poor and under privileged under pro-bono legal service and register themselves in Department of Justice's website (<http://www.doj.gov.in>).

Since its launch, the initiative has seen encouraging response from lawyers across the country. It is very heartening to know that most of the lawyers enrolled / registered have already started their pro-bono services voluntarily.

I would, therefore, request you to kindly upload my appeal in the website of your High Court requesting eligible advocates to register in <http://www.doj.gov.in>. All the litigants under Section 12 of the Legal Service Authority Act, 1987 are also requested to register in large number for free competent legal aid.

I would be grateful for your prompt action on the matter.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S.C. Barmma)
