

HIGH COURT OF KERALA

R03/2016(SS)

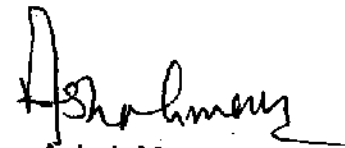

Kochi - 682 031
Date : 23-03-2016

PRESS RELEASE

Looking to the large number of civil, criminal and writ petitions pending for quite a long time, the Honourable the Chief Justice has ordered to take up certain old cases, which are ready for hearing, during this summer vacation, on the following basis:

- a) In those cases in which a request has been received from the Counsel for either party with no objection from the Counsel for the opposite party.
- b) In cases, where the respondent is State, the request for listing of the cases can be made by the Counsel for the petitioner after giving copy of the request letter to the learned Govt. Pleader.

An advance list of the cases to be taken up for hearing shall be published after receipt of such request filed by the learned counsel in accordance with the procedure as stated above.

Ashok Menon,
Registrar General.
