THIS BAIL APPLICATION HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 08.04.2020,
THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY PASSED THE FOLLOWING:

ORDER

This application is filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C.

2. The applicant herein is the 1st accused in Crime No. 295 of 2020 of the Puthoor Police Station registered under Sections 498A, 506(i), 114, 323, 325, 307 r/w. Section 34 of the IPC and Section 75 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015. He was arrested on 17.3.2020 and he remains in custody.

3. The de facto complainant is the father-in-law of the applicant. The allegation is that on 16.3.2020, at about 10.30 pm, the applicant herein attacked his wife and his minor child and caused injuries. It is also alleged that the applicant herein and his mother, who is arrayed as the 2nd accused, subjected the wife of the applicant to matrimonial cruelty and harassment.

4. Heard Sri. B.Mohan Lal, the learned counsel appearing for the applicant and the learned Public Prosecutor through Video Conferencing.

5. I have considered the submissions and have gone through annexures A1 and A 2. It appears from Annexure A2 that the applicant was arrested when he was tending to his minor son while he was admitted in the hospital.

6. Though prima facie, the allegations appear to be very grave, it cannot be ignored that a lockdown has been imposed in the Country and the citizens therein have been advised to practice social distancing and to quarantine themselves. The Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as this Court have adopted measures to reduce the physical presence of lawyers, litigants, court staff, paralegal personnel in courts across the country and to ensure the continued dispensation of justice. Directions have also been issued to decongest the Jails. In that view of the matter, I am of the considered opinion that the applicant herein can be granted provisional bail for a period of 30 days from today.

In the result, this application will stand allowed. The Superintendent of the jail wherein the applicant is incarcerated is directed to release the applicant provisionally on bail for a period of 30 days on the applicant executing a personal bond without sureties. The above order shall be subject to the following conditions:

- i. The applicant shall furnish to the Jail Superintendent, the permanent place of his abode, and he shall undertake that he will remain in quarantine for a period of 30 days from the date of this order. He shall also furnish his phone number and the phone number of his immediate relative. Before releasing the accused, the Superintendent of Jail concerned shall verify the above details. The Superintendent of Jail shall also intimate the release of the applicant to the Station House Officer of the Police Station which has registered the crime.
- ii. On being released from prison, the applicant shall report before the jurisdictional police station and shall furnish a copy of the undertaking furnished before the Jail Superintendent. The SHO concerned shall ensure that the applicant does not leave the premises, where he has undertaken to remain in quarantine till such time the lockdown period continues in force, otherwise than for emergent situations, and exceptional reasons provided under the orders passed by Central and State Governments, for COVID-19 pandemic.

- iii. The applicant shall not tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses in any manner whatsoever. He shall not make any contact with the victim.
- iv. The applicant shall not commit any offense while on bail.
- v. On the expiry of 30 days, ordered as above, or within three days of the withdrawal of the lockdown by the Government, whichever is earlier, the applicant shall appear before the jurisdictional Court and seek regular bail and the Court shall consider his application on its merits and pass appropriate orders.

If the applicant violates any of the conditions above, the Station House Officer may approach the jurisdictional Court and may move an application for cancellation of bail, which shall be considered and disposed of by the said Court, notwithstanding the fact that interim bail has been granted by this Court.
